

VOTE CAST FOR THE CHITTENDEN COUNTY TICKET

TOWNS,	Senators								Assistant Judges				State's Attorney		Sheriff		High Bailiff		Probate Judge
	Mower, R.	Higwood, R.	Quinn, R.	Henry, R.	O'Neil, D.	Fredrick, D.	Brumley, D.	Gillett, D.	Northen, R.	Hall, R.	Lavigne, D.	Kiddie, D.	Hopkins, R.	Coston, D.	Allen, R.	Horton, D.	Norton, R.	Loddy, D.	Macomber, R.	Hill, D.
Bolton	62	61	61	62	29	30	29	34	61	62	28	28	62	28	62	29	63	28	62	28
Burlington	1227	1186	1173	1179	1274	1266	1264	1277	1177	1169	1283	1290	1203	1290	1227	1300	1177	1245	1236	1240
Colchester	185	268	176	181	354	340	335	344	169	183	394	381	210	366	176	428	173	377	205	357
Charlotte	181	174	186	180	50	49	48	51	182	182	38	56	181	49	182	49	182	49	183	48
Essex	272	276	271	275	82	88	84	88	277	285	83	84	276	85	295	85	280	82	282	82
Hinesburg	154	154	161	152	50	50	98	61	164	164	52	57	169	53	167	54	167	50	167	50
Huntington	146	143	148	145	33	33	33	34	146	145	33	33	148	34	147	34	144	33	146	33
Jericho	166	164	163	172	78	86	80	77	167	166	77	78	166	78	172	79	168	81	174	77
Milton	235	236	234	235	81	85	83	84	229	230	84	83	236	82	238	82	235	82	242	78
Richmond	126	120	121	121	133	136	136	155	133	131	131	130	134	132	134	131	132	132	133	131
Shelburne	102	103	108	105	52	53	61	56	106	107	55	54	108	56	107	55	108	54	108	54
So. Burlington	84	83	85	85	102	101	112	101	95	86	97	99	88	100	86	104	86	100	86	100
St. George	18	18	18	18	4	4	5	4	19	18	4	4	19	4	18	6	18	4	19	3
Underhill	124	121	122	150	87	94	93	85	123	120	93	94	128	89	125	95	124	92	126	89
Westford	121	121	120	124	20	19	19	20	120	101	19	19	119	20	122	20	119	19	122	19
Williston	147	145	144	145	64	63	63	63	151	145	66	66	153	66	150	70	151	69	153	69
Totals	3350	3373	3291	3329	2493	2497	2543	2534	3319	3294	2537	2556	3400	2532	3408	2621	3327	2497	3444	2458

turning home with him after spending a week at Judge Allen's. Mrs. Sutton and daughter, Ethel, returned to Middle town, Conn., Saturday after spending several weeks at J. J. Chapman's. Mrs. Emma Chapman of Burlington has been the guest of her brother, John Chapman. —Lewis Zeno has purchased a farm in South Burlington and will make it his home. —Miss Ryan of New York is visiting at Charles Murray's. —Mr. and Mrs. George P. Martin and son of Burlington and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin of Charlotte were guests of E. C. Martin Sunday. —Miss Marjorie McKenna has been spending a few days with her cousin, Lucille Moore, in Burlington. —Seymour Pierce of Thomaston, Conn., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Pierce. —Miss Lucy Belle Pierce has returned after spending a few weeks at South Hero. —The Misses Ruth Patrick, Hazel Cassidy and Lillian Frazer have returned from Long Lake, N. Y., where they have been employed during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Suel Sargent and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dwyer have been visiting in Bristol and Lincoln. Word has been received of the death of Henry K. Baldwin at the home of his son, F. W. Baldwin, in Ogdensburg, New York, August 28, at the age of 55 years. Mr. Baldwin was born in this town in 1856 and was the son of F. W. Baldwin, for many years a prominent merchant in this town. In 1880 he married Constance Cobb and moved to Potsdam, N. Y., and engaged in the flour, grain and coal business and accumulated a comfortable fortune. Five years ago he turned his business over to his son, Frank, who has since died. He is survived by one son, Fred W. Baldwin, of Ogdensburg, N. Y., and a daughter, Mrs. Elmer Bailey of Burlington. He also leaves two brothers, Edmund and Clayton of Los Angeles, Cal., and two sisters, Mrs. T. A. Wheeler of Burlington and Mrs. H. A. Beecher of this town. —Hope Clark of Kings Daughters will meet with Miss May Murray Friday afternoon. —Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Booth and two children of Burlington visited at Truman Burritt's Sunday. —Mrs. Kate Isham returned to Burlington Tuesday after spending a week with friends here. —Miss Anna Bissell of Bristol visited her parents here over Sunday. —Miss Green of Thomaston, Conn., is the guest of Mrs. C. W. Pierce. —Mrs. G. D. Boynton has been spending a week in Burlington.

MILTON.

Mrs. Grant Patten and daughter, Ruth, have returned to their home in New London, Conn. They were accompanied by Hayward Sturges, who will make them a few weeks' visit. —Gertrude Phelps, who has been spending several weeks with her father in Richmond, has returned home. —Henry Patterson has moved to A. B. Ashby's house on Railroad street. —Joelyn Minkler has been confined to the house for a few days by illness. —Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lamb of Burlington are visiting at Albert and Harle Lamb's. —Mrs. D. Q. Parker and daughter, Albertine, returned Monday to their home in Richmond after spending several months at her sister's. —Mrs. E. J. Robinson. —Mrs. Lottie Beach of Jericho is visiting at E. S. Morgan's. —Miss Ormish is the guest of Miss May Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Mallard Hamilton of Buffalo, N. Y., who have been touring through Massachusetts and the White mountains, are now visiting H. O. Clark and family of this town. —The Rev. D. H. Strong was called to South Deerfield, Mass., Wednesday by the death of his mother. —Hon. H. O. Clark and family have returned from an automobile trip to Maine. —J. E. Wagner attended the fair at Shelton Wednesday. —Miss Julia Lavale of Middlebury is teaching in the Hardacre district. —Miss Gladys Phelps in the North district. —Miss Lena Holmes at the Boro. —Miss Jennie Lyman in the East district. —Miss Carrie Robinson at West Milton. —The morning train south was delayed over an hour Wednesday morning by an accident in the hollow.

ESSEX.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Weed of Essex was the scene of a quiet wedding on Thursday, August 22, when their sister, Mrs. E. Weed Nichols, and Charles H. Hackett were united in marriage at two o'clock in the afternoon. The parlors were beautifully decorated by J. E. Metcalf, a brother-in-law. The bride party entering to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. Weed, stood under a canopy of evergreens brightened with goldenrod. The bride was given away by her brother, and responded to the marriage lines read by her uncle, the Rev. P. C. Abbey, while her little nieces, Rachel and Mary Weed, as flower girls, bore bouquets of sweet peas. The wedding presents were many and valuable. Mrs. Hackett has, for many years been a teacher in the public schools of Orono, Neb. Mr. Hackett is a business man of Cohasset, Mass.

UNDERHILL.

Miss Alice Gile went Monday to the Fanny Allen hospital for treatment. —Henry Dickenson has bought John Cushing's tenement on the raceway. —Walter Neely of New York city is visiting his brother, E. G. Neely. —Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bentley and grandson, Samuel Bentley, of New Bedford, Mass., who have been visiting at L. F. Metcalf's, left Thursday morning in their car for home, going by way of the White mountains. —Mrs. Lincoln has bought back his living and will go into the hotel September 1. —Mr. Grover will move to Essex Junction, where he has bought George Willey's living business. The graded school begins September 3 with the following teachers: High school, A. W. Harris; grammar department, Mrs. Lillian Cross; intermediate department, Mrs. Laura Metcalf; primary department, Miss Sadie Fitzgerald. —Harle Blakey of Barre is visiting at W. H. Jordan's. —Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Olsen of Schenectady, N. Y., are guests of Mrs. H. W. Rockwood. —Miss Hope Scribner, who has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Scribner, returned to Cambridge, Mass., Friday. —Mrs. C. E. Mead returned Saturday to Lancaster, Mass., after a few weeks' visit in this place. —Mrs. W. T. Mead, who went to the Mary Fletcher hospital last week for an operation, died at the hospital Monday night.

The following from the Schenectady Union-Star of August 29 may be of interest to many in this vicinity: "A pretty home wedding took place last evening at No. 51 Becker street, when Melissa, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Faffenbach, and Merton Whitaker Knight were married by the Rev. H. B. Roberts of South. The bride was attended by her sister, Alana, and E. B. Van der Meer was best man. After a wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Knight left on the midnight train for Lynn, Mass., where they will make their future home." The groom is well-known here, being the youngest son of D. W. Knight of this place. He has been with the General Electric company of Schenectady, N. Y., for several years, and now assumes the head of the billing department for the same company at Lynn, Mass.

CHARLOTTE.

Schools in town will begin generally Monday, September 9. —The young people gave a dance in Library hall Friday evening. —Lessor's orchestra furnished music. —Miss Kate Smith and Merle and Laura Whally have gone to New York city, where they have positions. —Mrs. G. H. Root and daughter, Marjorie, of Boston, who have returned home. —Miss Merle Byington has been visiting in Whallonsburg, N. Y. —Mrs. A. C. Dean and son, L. Richard Dean, who have been spending the summer in Princeton, N. J., have returned to their home here. —Cyrus Horsford has returned from Oklahoma. —M. W. Williams, who has been very ill, remains about the same. —E. Hudson Converse, republican, was elected town representative on the eighth ballot, the result being announced at 12 o'clock Tuesday night. The final ballot stood Converse 136, Prindle 106 and Van Vleet 2.

WILLISTON.

About 29 of the young people with several out-of-town friends spent the weekend in camp at Lake Iroquois. —Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Talcott, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Wright Clark, Miss Sylvia Warren, J. E. Kennedy, H. M. Fay, Charles Christmas and Asher Hall attended the Addison County fair Tuesday, making the trip by automobile. Others who attended the fair were the Rev. A. B. Potter, Frank W. Metcalf, C. H. Vincent of Jonesville has been visiting his family here. —Douglas Hunter of Burlington has been visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. P. Hunter. —Mrs. Peter Flynn was in Burlington Monday. —Mr. and Mrs. Leon Buxton of Burlington visited at the home of his aunt, Mrs. W. R. Curtis, Monday. —Mrs. Simister and son, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes have been at F. S. Tomlinson's for a few weeks, returned Tuesday to Montreal. —Miss Myrtle Alger returned to Greenboro Monday after a short visit at home. Her grandmother, Mrs. Martha Pettie, accompanied her. —Mrs. Joseph Blaisette and grand-daughter, Santa Meade, have been visiting in Essex Junction. —Mrs. L. C. Rice has returned from a 10 days' visit with her sister, Mrs. S. W. Paige, in St. Albans. —Mrs. J. P. Whitten, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Paige, returned at the same time. —R. W. Brown was at home from Burlington over Sunday and Labor day. —Miss Alice Carroll of Burlington was in town Monday. —Mrs. Ruby Alger (Buxton) May, who had been at H. T. Chase's for about six weeks, died very suddenly Saturday evening after a brief illness. The remains were removed Sunday to Essex Junction, where funeral services were held Monday afternoon. She was married to Frank May about a year ago and had been living in Essex. —Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hanley and family entertained Mrs. Simister and Mrs. Warren, of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Fanny Bullock of Springfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Partridge and two children of Westford, Mr. and Mrs. Castle Williams and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams and daughter of Essex. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Ransom of Essex entertained Mrs. Rufus Atchison, in Montville. Several from here attended the Middlebury fair last week. —Mr. and Mrs. Burton Ellis and children of Malden, Mass., and Mrs. Henry Nichols of Essex were calling on friends in town last week.

JONESVILLE.

Mrs. B. J. Eddy and Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Eddy were over-Sunday visitors at C. C. Fuller's. —Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Alger and daughter of Colchester were at L. A. Alger's Sunday. —School opened Tuesday with a large attendance. Miss Tuttle of Woodstock is the new teacher. —Mrs. Allen Sabins is entertaining a friend from Massachusetts. —Mrs. Marcia Sabins is in Burlington. —The Lend-a-Hand club meet with Mrs. William O'Neill. —Miss Helen Nash has begun work as night and Sunday operator in the telephone exchange. —Miss Zoe Palmer goes to Castleton next week, where she will enter the normal school. Her mother is to accompany her. —Mrs. Whalen and daughter, Kathryn, have returned from Burlington, where they have been spending some time. —The Rev. John Paige of Burlington will conduct another service Sunday evening.

SOUTH BURLINGTON.

Miss Stella Smith, bookkeeper for the Union Pacific Tea company, is at her home caring for her mother, who is seriously ill.

HUNTINGTON CENTER.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brewster and son of Lebanon, N. H., are visiting his brother, Carl Brewster. —Lloyd Ring returned Friday after visiting his sister, Mrs. Rufus Atchison, in Montville. Several from here attended the Middlebury fair last week. —Mr. and Mrs. Burton Ellis and children of Malden, Mass., and Mrs. Henry Nichols of Essex were calling on friends in town last week.

MILTON BORO.

Miss Mae Hogaboon was a guest of her aunts, Mrs. T. S. Berry and Mrs. John Shean, Sunday and Monday. —Miss Virginia Shean spent Sunday and Monday at home. —George Phelps of Albion is in town. —Miss Marion Stanly and Lawrence Stanly are attending school at Fairfax. —Mr. and Mrs. L. N. McNall spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of R. E. Bullock. —Mrs. Martha Darling is a guest of Mrs. Mortimer Reynolds. —School opened Tuesday with Miss Lena Holmes as teacher.

JERICO.

Mr. and Mrs. James Casey are parents of a daughter, Ellen Ann, born Friday morning. —Mr. and Mrs. Gato of Cambridge and Mr. and Mrs. Campion of East Berkshire were at A. P. Safford's Thursday. —Mrs. Frank May is seriously ill at H. T. Chase's. —Lloyd Hubbard returned Friday night from a visit in Hyde Park and Morrisville. —Mrs. Fanny Fish Bullock of Springfield, Mass., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Simister, at F. S. Tomlinson's. —Miss Anabelle Welden-Becker is at home from Burlington for a few weeks. —Mr. and Mrs. Sisters and family and Charles Sisters of Wyoming, who is visiting her, spent Saturday at Lake Iroquois. —Miss Flora Prouty of Chicago has been visiting at F. W. Pease's. —Clark R. Varney and Miss Lena Varney returned Friday from a week in Johnson and Greensboro. —Miss Blanche Derby of Johnson accompanied them home and will visit here for a week or longer. —Mrs. C. A. Hawes and daughter of Burlington have been at Joseph Blaisette's. —Mrs. Hiram Hanley and Mrs. Simister spent Friday in Essex. —Miss Dwyer of Burlington has been visiting Miss Ellen Cogswell. —Miss Myrtle Alger returned to Greensboro Monday after a short visit at home and opened her school there Tuesday morning. —Madam Chittenden and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murphy of South Burlington have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Chittenden. —Miss Daisy McGibbon of Underhill has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. Jackson. —Mrs. Blood of Essex and Mrs. Ann Douglas of Kalamazoo, Mich., have been visiting Charles Packard's. —The Rev. and Mrs. Charles Nutting and children have returned from a two weeks' vacation in Massachusetts. Services in the Baptist church were resumed Sunday. —Mrs. Katherine Hanley of Essex Junction has been visiting her sister, Mrs. James Melane. —Mrs. M. O. H. Brown and Miss Phyllis Brown attended the Morrisville fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Byington have been entertaining their nieces, the Misses Florence and Alma Phelps, of Williston, N. Y. —Monday Day of New York has been a guest at the home of his uncle, Buel H. Day, for a few days. —William Lewis returned to Hardwick Monday after visiting at his nephew's, Charles E. Holly's. —Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Roberts attended the Morrisville fair Friday. —F. S. Tomlinson's Sunday school class of young people will serve ice cream in the parlors of the Congregational church Friday evening from six until nine o'clock. —Mr. and Mrs. Charles Packard and family attended the Morrisville fair. —Miss Flora Prouty, who has been visiting at F. W. Pease's, has returned. —Miss Lulu Barber of Waterbury is visiting her mother on Lee river. —C. B. Vincent of Jonesville has been visiting his family here. —Douglas Hunter of Burlington has been visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. P. Hunter. —Mrs. Peter Flynn was in Burlington Monday. —Mr. and Mrs. Leon Buxton of Burlington visited at the home of his aunt, Mrs. W. R. Curtis, Monday. —Mrs. Simister and son, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes have been at F. S. Tomlinson's for a few weeks, returned Tuesday to Montreal. —Miss Myrtle Alger returned to Greenboro Monday after a short visit at home. Her grandmother, Mrs. Martha Pettie, accompanied her. —Mrs. Joseph Blaisette and grand-daughter, Santa Meade, have been visiting in Essex Junction. —Mrs. L. C. Rice has returned from a 10 days' visit with her sister, Mrs. S. W. Paige, in St. Albans. —Mrs. J. P. Whitten, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Paige, returned at the same time. —R. W. Brown was at home from Burlington over Sunday and Labor day. —Miss Alice Carroll of Burlington was in town Monday. —Mrs. Ruby Alger (Buxton) May, who had been at H. T. Chase's for about six weeks, died very suddenly Saturday evening after a brief illness. The remains were removed Sunday to Essex Junction, where funeral services were held Monday afternoon. She was married to Frank May about a year ago and had been living in Essex. —Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hanley and family entertained Mrs. Simister and Mrs. Warren, of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Fanny Bullock of Springfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Partridge and two children of Westford, Mr. and Mrs. Castle Williams and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams and daughter of Essex. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Ransom of Essex entertained Mrs. Rufus Atchison, in Montville. Several from here attended the Middlebury fair last week. —Mr. and Mrs. Burton Ellis and children of Malden, Mass., and Mrs. Henry Nichols of Essex were calling on friends in town last week.

Clark Edwards of Montpelier is visiting his sister, Mrs. Walter Grace.

McMahon opened her school in Williston Tuesday. —The Misses Florence Buxton and Bessie Percival returned Tuesday to Essex Junction to continue in the high school. —The young people had a corn roast on John Schillhammer's hill Monday night. —Mrs. Oscar Kinsey and daughter of Cambridge have been visiting at Mrs. Alger's. —Homer Day returned Monday night to New York. —Dennis Terrill and his mother, Mrs. L. G. Terrill, spent Sunday at H. S. Woods's in Essex Junction. —Mr. and Mrs. Woods and daughter will go this month to California to make their home. —Mrs. Cleveland and son, Orlo, went Wednesday to Bakersfield to remain some time. —Mrs. Warren Day spent Wednesday in Burlington. —Miss Elizabeth and Anna Belle Wendenbecker have been at home from Burlington for a few days. —Mrs. Cass, who has been visiting relatives here and in Riverside, started Wednesday for her home in Boston. She will visit in Northfield while on her way. —The Misses Sara and Charlotte Safford and Miss Blanche Derby spent Monday in Burlington. —Schools throughout the town with the exception of East Jericho open Monday for 11 weeks. Teachers: High, Edwin E. Maloney; Williston, N. Y.; assistant, Miss Katherine Henley, Richmond. The grades at the Center will be divided between the Misses Helen and Joan Rogers, the former having the higher and the latter the lower. Jericho, grammar, Mrs. Ada Prior Bovee; intermediate, Miss Buelah A. Atkins, Burlington; primary, Mrs. Lena Whitten Rice, Lee river, Mrs. Eva Ford Neely, Williston; Miss Clara Atherton, Essex Junction; East Jericho, Miss Edith Derby, Johnson; district, Miss Nellie Leonard, Richmond; Nashville, Miss Jeanette, Shattuck; Hanksville, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hanley, who have been visiting here and in this vicinity for a few weeks, returned Wednesday to Somerville, Mass. —Albert P. Brington, Arthur C. Brown and William H. Whitcomb attended the Middlebury fair. —John Tarbox is seriously ill. —Mrs. W. C. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hazard and Mrs. W. R. Curtis were among the visitors in Burlington Wednesday. —Miss Florence Day went Monday to her school near Bethel, where she will teach. —Mrs. Daniel Splain and son of St. Albans are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McEee.

ST. GEORGE.

Mrs. Miranda Westcott went to Essex Sunday to visit her son, Walter Westcott and family. —Miss Lucie Hinsdale entertained a number of her friends at a Saturday party August 29. —Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ayer and children have returned home after passing a month with Mrs. Ayer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hubbard, in Swanton. —Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hinsdale visited at Rollin Forbes's Sunday. —Mr. and Mrs. Ira Chase visited Mrs. Bernice Rule in Charlotte Sunday. —G. Raymond Hubbard of Swanton is passing a week with his sister, Mrs. Earl Ayer. —Mrs. Y. Horton Day of New York has been a guest at the home of his uncle, Buel H. Day, for a few days. —William Lewis returned to Hardwick Monday after visiting at his nephew's, Charles E. Holly's. —Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Roberts attended the Morrisville fair Friday. —F. S. Tomlinson's Sunday school class of young people will serve ice cream in the parlors of the Congregational church Friday evening from six until nine o'clock. —Mr. and Mrs. Charles Packard and family attended the Morrisville fair. —Miss Flora Prouty, who has been visiting at F. W. Pease's, has returned. —Miss Lulu Barber of Waterbury is visiting her mother on Lee river. —C. B. Vincent of Jonesville has been visiting his family here. —Douglas Hunter of Burlington has been visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. P. Hunter. —Mrs. Peter Flynn was in Burlington Monday. —Mr. and Mrs. Leon Buxton of Burlington visited at the home of his aunt, Mrs. W. R. Curtis, Monday. —Mrs. Simister and son, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes have been at F. S. Tomlinson's for a few weeks, returned Tuesday to Montreal. —Miss Myrtle Alger returned to Greenboro Monday after a short visit at home. Her grandmother, Mrs. Martha Pettie, accompanied her. —Mrs. Joseph Blaisette and grand-daughter, Santa Meade, have been visiting in Essex Junction. —Mrs. L. C. Rice has returned from a 10 days' visit with her sister, Mrs. S. W. Paige, in St. Albans. —Mrs. J. P. Whitten, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Paige, returned at the same time. —R. W. Brown was at home from Burlington over Sunday and Labor day. —Miss Alice Carroll of Burlington was in town Monday. —Mrs. Ruby Alger (Buxton) May, who had been at H. T. Chase's for about six weeks, died very suddenly Saturday evening after a brief illness. The remains were removed Sunday to Essex Junction, where funeral services were held Monday afternoon. She was married to Frank May about a year ago and had been living in Essex. —Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hanley and family entertained Mrs. Simister and Mrs. Warren, of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Fanny Bullock of Springfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Partridge and two children of Westford, Mr. and Mrs. Castle Williams and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams and daughter of Essex. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Ransom of Essex entertained Mrs. Rufus Atchison, in Montville. Several from here attended the Middlebury fair last week. —Mr. and Mrs. Burton Ellis and children of Malden, Mass., and Mrs. Henry Nichols of Essex were calling on friends in town last week.

COLCHESTER.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hanson and two children of Boston are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Fowler. —Jason Prior of South Burlington spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon. —Schools in town began Tuesday. —Miss Laura Plante of Moores Forks, N. Y., is teaching in the primary room. —The Misses Lillian Wolcott and Elizabeth Smith and Wesley Smith and Edwin Wright are attending school at Essex Junction. —Mrs. Myron Orvis of Hinesburg is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Wright.

EAST CHARLOTTE.

J. J. Quinn, who has been seriously ill with the grip, is recovering. —Miss Anna Hayes returned to Hardwick Monday to resume teaching. —Mrs. W. O. Baker and two sons returned Saturday evening from Providence, R. I., where they have spent the summer. —Roy Tatro of Burlington is visiting at E. R. Voigt's. —Mrs. Peter Auchman of South Hero and the Misses Rose and Mary Murphy of Charlotte have been visiting Mrs. Mosee Feelyea. —Mrs. Jane Stebbins is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Ambrose Smith. —B. H. Carpenter has returned to Colchester after a few days at his farm here. —Lewis Beers and family have returned from Jericho, where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Burton Beers. —Henry Putnam will return to Brigham academy this week. —Mrs. J. R. Taggart has returned from a visit to St. Albans. —Mrs. Simister and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Elmore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hayes Sunday, returning home Sunday afternoon, making the trip by automobile. —The Ladies' Aid society will give an ice cream social at the vestry Friday evening of this week. —The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Mrs. Leon D. Prindle Wednesday afternoon. —Mid-week prayer meeting will be held at the church, 7 p.m. —The funeral of Marjorie Smith, widow of John A. Palmer, was held Sunday from the Palmer homestead, just over the town line in Monkton, where she died.

An automobile party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Field and Miss Lella Robyn, who have been visiting Mrs. Lucy Jackson, have returned to Waterbury, Conn., accompanied by Miss Lou Jackson and Mrs. Mary Davis who will spend some time in Waterbury, and also in New York city.

WINDOOSKI.

Walter Lester, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lester, who was hit by Elias Lyman's automobile on the Windooski river bridge Saturday morning, was Monday removed to his home from the Mary Fletcher hospital. He recovered consciousness Monday morning and insisted upon being brought home. He is still suffering from the blow on his head but it is thought that nothing of a serious nature will result.

The election here Tuesday brought out a large vote, owing to the fight on for representative which polled a total of 880 votes, while the governor vote totaled but 616 votes. On the representative vote there were 16 blanks and two defective ballots cast, making the total valid vote 682, of which Emile J. Blais, democrat, received 427 and Lee W. Ravlin, republican, 255, making a majority for Mr. Blais of 172. The total straight democratic ticket was 231 and the total republican ticket numbered 97. These followed down through for both the State and county ticket. The progressive State ticket had 18 straight tickets while the socialists had two and the prohibitionists had six. The town still stands strongly democratic. The township vote stands as follows: For governor, Allen M. Fletcher, 152; Harland B. Howe, 597; Clement P. Smith, 127; Fred W. Sutter, four; Francis Metzger, 23; Harland B. Howe's majority over all is 178. For lieutenant-governor, Frank E. Howe, republican, ran ahead of the republican nominee for governor by 12 votes while the democratic nominee for lieutenant-governor ran behind the democratic nominee for governor by five votes.

The other candidates on the democratic and republican State tickets stand as follows: Treasurer, Edward H. Bennett, republican, 177; Martin A. Brown, 274; secretary of state, Guy W. Burdick, republican, 234; Jeremiah C. Burdick, democrat, 107; auditor of accounts, Horace F. Graham, republican, 188; Lewis W. Johnson, democrat, 281; attorney-general, Rufus E. Brown, republican, 159; Burton E. Bailey, democrat, 381. For representative to Congress for the first district, Frank L. Greene, republican, received 189 votes; Patrick M. Mellon, democrat, 374; George L. Story, 9, and John Spargo 1, making a majority over all for Mellon, 172.

Miss Anna Duquette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Duquette of West Spring street, was married Monday morning at St. Francis Xavier church to Oscar Polier by the pastor, the Rev. J. E. Audet. The fathers of both parties attended them.

Tuesday the democrats elected their justice ticket. Each candidate received not less than 90 votes. Those elected follow: Henry Conlin, Frank Carpenter, S. W. Sheehan, S. R. Marcotte, W. E. McGowan, F. E. Edward, A. L. P. E. Gokoy, D. E. O'Sullivan, W. G. Bushey; J. S. O'Brien, Louis Alapa, Louis Mongeon, E. H. Horton, F. E. Blaiswood and J. D. Greaney.

WEST BOLTON.

The members of the Baptist and Methodist churches held a picnic in G. W. Streeter's grove Wednesday. —There was a social for the Sunday school classes of the Baptist church at J. H. Smith's Friday evening. —Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamb of Plainfield, N. J., are visiting Mrs. Lamb